COVID-19 Related Screening in Colorado Springs

For updates on testing sites: https://www.elpasocountyhealth.org/covid-19-testing-information

For those who have general questions about coronavirus, also known as COVID-19, or want information about testing, the best place to get help is through the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment or https://www.elpasocountyhealth.org/services/coronavirus-disease-2019-covid-19

People can call 303.389.1687 or 1.877.462.2911 for answers in many languages. Or, for those seeking answers in English, you can email COHELP@RMPDC.org. People in El Paso County with non-urgent questions about COVID-19 can call 719-575-8888.

For free, confidential, professional, 24/7 support for any mental health, substance use or emotional concern, call Colorado Crisis Services at 1-844-493-TALK (8255) or text TALK to 38255 to speak to a trained professional.

For patients in Colorado who want to see a medical provider from the privacy of home, an online visit through UCHealth's Virtual Urgent Care can be one of the easiest, safest ways to get help. Anyone in Colorado, including visitors, may use this service. Insurance typically covers the visit, but for those who don't have insurance, there's a $49 flat fee.

The UCHealth HealthLink nurse advice line is free to all community members. The line is open 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday (closed on major holidays). Call HealthLink nurse advice line at 719.444.2273, press 6 for COVID information for Memorial Hospitals Central and North, Grandview Hospital, and Pikes Peak Regional Hospital.
