

Bryan Trujillo, MPH

Serving as Group Director of Community Health Improvement at Centura Health, Bryan leads various system transformation strategies in Colorado and western Kansas, including the Social Determinants of Health strategy, and the scaling of evidence-based maltreatment prevention programs in ambulatory settings.

Bryan is an inspirational leader who values action by collaborating with community members, organizations, and agencies to promote a shared governance structure that advances community health improvement activities.